Louisville, Evansville & St. Louis Consolidated Railroad Co.

Notice to Holders of Certificates of Deposit for First Consolidated Mortgage Five Per Cent. Bonds:

The Committee appointed by holders of the First Consolidated Mortgage Bonds of this Company has found it impracticable to prepare a plan of reor ganisation, because it has been unable to agree upon satisfactory te ms with the Committees rep-resenting prior lien Bonds. A majority of the Cerincates for Consolidated Mortgage Bonds, and also majority of the Louisville, Evansville and St. Louis Rai road Company First Mortgage Bonds, of the Evensyttle Rackport and Eastern Rattroad Company First Mortgage Bonds, and of the Huntingburg, Tell City and Cannelton Railroad Company First Mortgage Bonds, have now been acquired by Messra J. P. Morgan & Co., who have announced zation to which the Southern Rallway Company is a party. Reference is made to the advertisement of such plan for further particulars thereof.

It is the opinion of the Committee that the terms offered to the holders of Consolidated Mortgage Bonds, under the plan prepared by Messrs. J. P. Morgan & Co., are fair, and are at least as satisfactory as any which could possibly be obtained by this Committee in any other way. The Committee therefore recommends to the holders of such Bonds that they deposit the same under the plan and agreement announced by Messrs. J. P Morgan & Co.

The Committee has accordingly terminated the Bondbolders' Agreement of May 1, 1895, and di rected the return of the bonds deposited there-under. Holders of Certificates of Deposit for Conolidated Mortgage Bonds, deposited under that Agreement, may, without charge, withdraw their and Trust Company, upon surrender of their respec Dated New York, June 22, 1900.

LAUNCH DIDN'T GO WITH THE YACHT.

W. K. Vanderbilt, Jr., Gets Back the Small Craft That Was Used With the Carmencita. PHILADELPHIA, Pa., July 1.-Judge McPherson in the United States Court yesterday decided that the small naphtha launch that was taken with the yacht Carmencita by Robert L. Forrest when he bought the yacht from William K. Vanderbilt, Jr., was not a part of the sale and that it consequently belonged to Mr. Vanderbilt. The yacht was sold by Mr. Vanderbilt to Mr. Forrest for $4,000 some time ago. Mr. Forrest then lent it to another man. It was lying at Newjort and the man in charge delivered the small naphthal launch which was attached to it. Air. Vanderbilt on discovering this took measures to have the launch returned to him.

The little boat was found on the Schuylkill The little boat was found on the Schuylkill River and attached under a 1 bel filed in the United States District Court. Mr. Forrest subsequently filed an answer to the libel and the matter was to come up yesterday. It was agreed, however, that the case was to be heard on its ments. After the argument Judge McPherson held that the launch is not an appurtenance of the facht, and that it does not go with the yacht under the sale. By this decision Vanderbilt recovers possession of his launch.

THE NATIONAL SAENGERFEST.

There were rehearsals yesterday morning for the soloists and the orchestra. But none of the choruses took part, so all the home and visiting delegates were able to go to Ulmer Park with the consciousness that they were not missing any of their rivals' tests. The singers took with them to the piculo grounds a considerable Saengerfest atmosphere. Every man of them does that now wherever he goes. He has to wear his badge of membership in the union in order to pass represented.

The Executive Council of the festival met at the park. It had various matters to cecide before the competitions begin to-day. It was decided that the societies represented at the Saengerfest should be classified in the following order:

to Have Reformed. Ellen Carey, for thirty years known to the detectives at Mulberry Street as the most daring "funeral pickpocket" in the country, was arraigned before Magistrate Hogan yesterday in the Vorkville police court. With her in the pen was John Donahue, 55 years old. The Carey woman said she was 60 years old. Mrs. Annie Farly of 518 West Forty-seventh street went to St. Gabriel's Church in West Thirty-seventh street last Thursday morning to the funeral of William Hearman. With her went her daughter. After the funeral in the crowd outside the After the funeral in the crowd outside the church Mrs. Early felt some one tugging at her dress skirt and missed her pocketbook. She followed Mrs. Carey, who had been near her. to Second avenue, where, she says, she saw Mrs. Carey hand something to Donahue.

Eoth prisoners pleaded not guilty yesterday mor ing when arraigned. Donahue said he hated to be lecked up because he would lose his jub with the Wells Fargo Express Company.

At Headquarters, where the pair were held while the case vas being examined, it was said that Donahue had been a "trusty" for pickpockets at one time. He was supposed to have reformed.

A SNAKE IN A HAY MOW. Two Men Bitten as They Were Stowing Away

the Hay, One of Whom May Die. OAKS CORNERS, N. Y., July 1 .- Timothy Hammerton, Robert Budd and Wilson Williams were having on Hammerton's farm, three miles east of this village, yesterday. As they were stowing away a load of hay in the barn in the afternoon, Budd gave a yell and jumped from the mow to the floor, fifteen feet below. "I'm bitto by a snake," he shouted. At the same instant Williams, who was also on the mow, gave a yell and followed Budd. Immediately behind him a s reak of yellowish brown flashed through him a s reak of yellowish brown hashed through the air. It was the snake. Budd fell on the floor in a heap and the snake fell on him. Before he could rise the snake bit him in the calf of the rightles. Budd jumped to his feet and ran with Williams out of the barn, got a shotgun and killed the snake. Hammerton hitched up a horse and drove with the men to the office of Dr. Warbeer, in the village of Junius. When they arrived there the log of each man was swollen to an enormous size. Budd may die.
